

A revised Job Impact Statement is not required because the changes made to the last published rule do not necessitate revision to the previously published document. The changes to the text still seek to implement the paid family leave program in a way that accomplishes the goals highlighted in the Regulatory Impact Statement. These changes, while some of them are substantial, do not affect the meaning of any statements in the document.