

Handout 3: State by State Comparison

State	Time frame to Submit Report
Alaska	14 days after examination concluded
California	30 calendar days from the date of the commencement of the exam to issue the report
Connecticut	Within 30 days after the completion of the reports
Hawaii	Within 15 calendar days after receipt and no later than 15 calendar days prior to the scheduled date of hearing, whichever is sooner.
Illinois	Copy furnished to employee or representative as soon as practicable but no later than 48 hours before the time the case is set for hearing
Kansas	Entitled to report within a reasonable amount of time after examination
Kentucky	Fifteen (15) days after such examination a written report.
Maine	No later than 14 days after completion of examination. Board will distribute copies to the employer and employee
Massachusetts	Report at least one week prior to hearing
Michigan	Furnish report within 15 days of a request for the report
Nebraska	If review of records only report must be submitted within 10 business days of receipt of all necessary records and information. If examination required report must be submitted within 10 business days of the completion of the exam.
New York	Within [10] ten business days after the independent medical examination except that in cases of persons examined outside the State, such reports shall be filed and furnished within [20] twenty business days after the independent medical examination.
North Carolina	If examiner physically examined employee, the employer must produce the examiner's report to the employee within 10 business days of receipt by the employer
Rhode Island	Impartial medical examiner's report is due within 14 days of examination
Tennessee	No specific timeframe. Statute allows agency to penalize. However, fee received for evaluation will vary depending on timeliness. 60+ days late report then no fee paid.
Texas	Seven working days from the date of the examination of the injured employee.
Washington	Send completed report to Department or self-insurer within 14 calendar days of the examination date or within 14 calendar days of receipt of the results of any special tests or studies.
West Virginia	If only medical records are being paid, the provider shall provide the report within 30 days of the request to do so