

NYS Workers' Compensation Board Affirmation for Death Benefits

How to Complete This Affirmation for Workers' Compensation Death Benefits	Workers' Compensation Death Benefits
1. The person seeking workers' compensation death benefits should complete this affirmation. All claimants must complete Section A, Section B, and Section 1. Based on your relationship to the decedent, you must also complete the following sections: Spouses: Sec. 2 (and Sec. 3 if there are children). Parents or Guardians for Children: Sec. 3. Dependent Parents, Grandparents: Sec. 4. Dependent Grandchildren, Siblings: Sec. 5. Non-dependent Parents: Sec. 6. Legal Representative of Decedent's Estate: Sec. 7. 2. You only need to complete the sections listed above that pertain to your relationship with the Decedent. Strike out all sections or paragraphs that do not apply to you with an X. 3. Print legibly. Include decedent's Social Security number on each page, and the WCB Case Number on page 3, if you know it. 4. Answer as specifically as possible. Reread this affirmation after completion to ensure it is accurate because you are swearing to its truthfulness. Workers' compensation fraud is a felony punishable by fines and imprisonment. 5. Mail the completed and signed affirmation, and all attachments, to the Workers' Compensation Board at the address listed below.	1. The law provides up to $12,500 for funeral expenses downstate, and $10,500 upstate, depending on the county where the expenses are incurred. 2. The law also provides weekly benefits up to a maximum amount, based on the date of accident, for the following: (a) the legal surviving spouse until the spouse remarries, (b) Decedent's children up to age 18 (age 23 if they are attending an accredited educational institution as a full-time student), and (c) any dependent children of any age who are totally blind or totally and permanently disabled. 3. If there is no legal surviving spouse or dependent children, the law provides weekly benefits to grandchildren or siblings under age 18 who were dependent upon Decedent for support; or to parents or grandparents who were dependent upon Decedent for support when Decedent died. 4. If there are no individuals entitled to weekly death benefits, then $50,000 may be paid to Decedent's parents, or to Decedent's estate if Decedent's parents are deceased. 5. If you receive money as a result of a wrongful death action, the law allows the insurer to have a lien or credit against that money. The insurer's lien and credit rights may affect your ability to receive workers' compensation benefits until the lien and/or credit is exhausted. It is important to advise the insurer of the status of a wrongful death action, and to obtain its consent prior to settlement.
