

BENEFITS

What is Paid Family Leave for Family Care?

Paid Family Leave is an employee-funded insurance policy that provides job-protected, paid time off for your eligible family members (employees) to care for you (the care recipient) if you have a serious health condition.

ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION

Which family members are covered under Paid Family Leave for family care?

Your family member, as the employee, can request Paid Family Leave to care for you if you have a serious health condition and are related to your family member as their: spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild.

What is needed to demonstrate a domestic partnership?

There are a number of factors that are looked at when determining whether a domestic partnership exists. These include, but are not limited to: common ownership of property, children in common, signs of intent to marry, shared budgeting, and the length of the personal relationship.

How do you become eligible for family care under Paid Family Leave?

You need to have a serious health condition certified by your health care provider to receive family care under Paid Family Leave.

What is a serious health condition?

A serious health condition is defined as an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition requiring:

- inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or inpatient/outpatient residential health facility, or
- continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider.

Continuing treatment or supervision means one of the following reasons listed with some examples:

REASON	EXAMPLES
Chronic serious health condition that continues over an extended period of time, requires periodic treatment visits and may cause episodic periods of incapacity	Asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, psychosis, schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, or post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)
Long-term or permanent period of treatment that may not be effective and the family member is under continuing supervision	Alzheimer’s disease, severe stroke, or terminal stage of a disease
Treatment or recovery from restorative surgery after an accident or other injury, or a condition that would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three consecutive full days in the absence of treatment	Cancer (chemotherapy and radiation), severe arthritis (physical therapy), or kidney disease (dialysis)
A period of more than three consecutive full days involving treatment two or more times by a health care provider or treatment on at least one occasion followed by continuing treatment under supervision	A course of prescription medication as a regimen of continuing treatment

ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION (cont'd)

Can your family member take Paid Family Leave to care for you if you live outside of New York?

Yes. Your family member can take Paid Family Leave to care for you if you are living outside of New York, as long as they are within close proximity to you during the majority of the Paid Family Leave period. This includes time needed to travel to you as you are receiving care, travel to bring you to New York, securing your medication, or making arrangements for your care.

TAKING PAID FAMILY LEAVE

Can multiple family members take Paid Family Leave to care for you?

If your family members have different employers, they can take Paid Family Leave to care for you whenever they want. However, family members who work for the same employer must have their employer's approval first if they want to take Paid Family Leave at the same time to care for you.

How does your family member request Paid Family Leave for family care?

Talk with your family about how they can best help you. Identify which family member(s) can help with your care and when. If family members are taking time off from work, they should determine if they are eligible for New York's Paid Family Leave (refer to the Employee and Family Care downloadable guides on ny.gov/PaidFamilyLeave).

1. Your family member (employee) requesting leave must notify their employer at least 30 days before their leave will start, if it's foreseeable. Otherwise, they should notify their employer as soon as possible.
2. Your family member (employee) obtains the request form package for Care for a Family Member with Serious Health Condition. The forms are available from their employer, employer's insurance carrier or directly from ny.gov/PaidFamilyLeaveApply.
3. Your family member (employee) completes the Request For Paid Family Leave (Form PFL-1), following the instructions on the cover sheet. Your family member should make a copy for their records, and submit it to their employer. Their employer must fill out their section of Form PFL-1 and return it to your family member (employee) within three business days.
4. You (the care recipient) or your authorized representative, must fill out the Release Of Personal Health Information Under The Paid Family Leave Law (Form PFL-3) and submit it to your health care provider.
5. Your family member (employee) completes the employee section of the Health Care Provider Certification (Form PFL-4). You, your authorized representative, or your family member must provide Form PFL-4 to your health care provider.
6. Your health care provider completes the remainder of Form PFL-4 and returns it to you or your authorized representative. You or your authorized representative then gives Form PFL-4 to your family member for submission to their employer's insurance carrier.
