

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the proposed amendments will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The proposal amends the prior authorization process to include medical marijuana and update the drug formulary itself. These proposed changes will not affect jobs or employment opportunities in any manner.