

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the proposal is not expected to have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The proposal changes “physicians” to “treating providers” to conform to the expanding provider law, allows carriers, self-insured employers, and TPAs to designate a single mailing address for medical reports and bills, and allows for the possibility of an electronic process for submission of reports and bills.