

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the emergency adoption will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The emergency adoption allows authorized providers to be reimbursed for COVID-19 testing when workers' compensation benefits are sought due to work-place exposure to COVID-19.