

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the emergency adoption will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The emergency adoption provides benefits for employees who are caring for their family member.