

Statement as to why no Rural Area Impact Statement is Necessary

A Rural Area Impact Statement is not required because the emergency adoption will not have any impact rural areas. The emergency adoption provides benefits for employees who are caring for their family member.