

Statement explaining why a revised Regulatory Flexibility Analysis for Small Business and Local Governments is not required

A revised Regulatory Flexibility Analysis for Small Business and Local Governments is not required because the changes made to the last published rule do not necessitate revision to the previously published document. The changes to the text are not substantial, do not change the meaning of any provision and therefore do not change any statements in the document. The changes to the text clarify that assessments are imposed against employers but often remitted to the Board by the employer's insurance carrier. This change does not affect the meaning of any statements in the document.
