

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the proposal will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The proposal provides additional guidance to add drugs to the formulary and will not affect jobs or employment opportunities in any manner.