

Statement as to why no Rural Area Impact Statement is Necessary

A Rural Area Impact Statement is not required because the proposal will not have any impact rural areas. The proposal provides guidance about drugs that may be used to treat injured workers. The amendment will not affect rural areas in any manner.