

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the emergency adoption and proposal will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The emergency adoption and proposal is updating the regulation to conform to a recent Third Department Appellate Division Case.