

Statement why a revised Regulatory Impact Statement is not required

The Board made a clarifying change to section 309.3 of the proposal to more closely mirror the Cisnero decision, but this was the only change to the text, and a revised Regulatory Impact Statement is not required because the changes to the last published rule do not affect the meaning of any statements in the document.