Assessment of Public Comment

During the public comment period, the Board received one comment. The comment supported the regulation and contained suggestions for the updates to the PFL form(s) to reflect the new eligibility standard in the law taking effect January 1, 2027. The Board will consider these suggestions while updating its forms, but since these suggestions are unrelated to the proposed regulation, no change has been made to the proposal in response to the comment.

Changes made:

- None