

Statement as to why no Job Impact Statement is Necessary

A Job Impact Statement is not required because the proposal will not have any impact on jobs or employment opportunities. The rule removes the requirement of mandatory adjournment for cross-examination of a claimant's attending medical provider, requires filing of certain forms surrounding extensions for cross-examination of medical witnesses by deposition, and updates medical witness deposition fees.